

Sweet Futures
Boutique Firm with a Global Reach

An innovative and unique approach to Option Execution

Premier brokering for livestock futures & options

We welcome you to experience our innovative and cutting-edge approach brokering livestock options. Whether you're a commercial hedger, financial institution, or pure speculator, Sweet Futures will add value and edge needed to navigate these volatile markets.

Sweet Futures is a neutral intermediary and as such never takes a proprietary position in the markets we cover. Our execution service operates discretely between buyers and sellers to help each side achieve the best possible price in the marketplace. The relationships with our liquidity providers are long lasting and genuine. These relationships afford us the ability to provide increased liquidity, enhanced price discovery and improved transparency to the market place.
